

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
State of Louisiana

Governor
Bobby Jindal

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, direct support professionals are the primary providers of long-term services for millions of individuals with physical and mental disabilities; and
- WHEREAS, direct support professionals build close, trusted relationships with the people they serve, who rely on them for assistance with their most intimate needs; and
- WHEREAS, direct support professionals provide essential support and care to enable persons with disabilities to live meaningful, productive lives while remaining connected to their families and communities; and
- WHEREAS, the majority of direct support professionals are employed in home and community-based settings, and that number is projected to increase over the decade; and
- WHEREAS, direct support professionals play a key role in allowing individuals with disabilities to live successfully in their community offering a practical alternative to more costly institutional care.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bobby Jindal, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim September 13-19, 2015, as

DIRECT SUPPORT PROFESSIONALS WEEK in the State of Louisiana.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand officially and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Louisiana, at the Capitol, in the City of Baton Rouge, on this the 13th day of September A. D., 2015.
